Boston City Council
Committee on Planning and Development
Bill Linehan, Chair

September 20, 2016

Dear Councilors:

The Boston City Council's Committee on Planning and Development to which was referred the following:

Docket #1192 – Message and order for the confirmation of the re-appointment of Jane Cooper Brayton as a member of the Zoning Commission, for a term ending May 1, 2019.

This matter is sponsored by the Mayor and was referred to the Committee on Planning and Development on 9/14/2016.

The Committee on Planning and Development held a public hearing in the Iannella Chamber on September 20, 2016 to take testimony and consider the same.

Jeffrey Hampton – Deputy Director for Zoning, Boston Redevelopment Authority attended the hearing and presented testimony on the mission and the jurisdiction of the Zoning Commission and in support of the re-appointment of Jane Cooper Brayton, who has served for fifteen years as a member of the Zoning Commission, the testimony included his personal knowledge of her dedication, qualifications, experience and commitment to the work and mission of the Zoning Commission.

The Committee reviewed the resume, qualifications, experience and commitment to the work and mission of the Zoning Commission of the appointee and both Jeffrey Hampton – Deputy Director for Zoning, Boston Redevelopment Authority and the appointee responded to questions from the Chair.

Based on the information gathered and testimony presented at the hearing, and having considered the same I respectfully report that this re-appointment ought to be confirmed.

Bill Linehan
